THE SPANISH YOKE

Does Not Rest Easy on the Necks of Cubans.

A REVOLUTION IS ON FOOT.

The Leaders of the Movement Actively Preparing for the Outbreak and the Blow is Expected to Be Struck in the Near Future—Large Forces Gathering in the United States and Spain.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The World publishes an article declaring that another revolution is on foot to liberate Cuba. Preparations, it is said, are in active progress in this and other cities, as well as upon the island itself. When it will break forth is as yet unknown, but from all indications all the plans of the leaders are nearly ripe, and the first blow may be struck within a few days.

Large and Well Organized.

The movement is stated upon good authority to be the largest and most completely organized ever inaugurated for Cuban independence. There are said to be 8,000 Cuban patriots in this country ready to join in the war.

In Cuba the revolutionist party is also actively preparing for the outbreak, and when the word is given the forces on Spanish and United States soil will act in conjunction for the overthrow of the Spanish yoke.

In Progress for Months.

The plans have been in progress for several months. New York has been made the headquarters, but so much secrecy has been maintained that the news of the contemplated uprising only leaked out Thursday. Then it became known that for several months past meetings of Cubans have been held in the cities of Tampa and Key West, Fla., and during the past six weeks in New-York, for the purpose of organizing an army and raising funds to assist the residents of Cuba who are dissatisfied with the Spanish government.

In New York three revolutionist clubs have been formed. Another club will be organized next Sunday. The names of the clubs are the Los Independientes, the Jose Marti club—named in honor of its promoter, Señor Jose Marti, the Uruguayan consul—and the Penos Nuevos. Next Sunday the Porto Ricans of New York, will form a revolutionary association.

Cause of the Dissatisfaction.

A Cuban now in this city, who is one of the most prominent in the movement, says the people of Cuba are dissatisfied because the Spanish government did not carry out the reforms which it promised after the late revolution.

The clubs in this country, he said, have been thoroughly organized and their plans have been mapped out in good shape. The revolution, he added, would come very soon.

Arms for Cuba.

Two coasting vessels left this port a few weeks ago, and it was reported that each one carried a cargo of arms for Venezuelan insurrectionists, but it was said in Spanish circles a few days ago that the arms were landed at Key West and were destined for use in Cuba.

Thinks It All Talk.

R. A. C. Smith, the well known Wall street banker, has many interests in Cuba. He recently returned to the United States from an extensive trip in the West Indies. When spoken to Thursday regarding the probable revolution he scouted the idea, and said the island was never in a more prosperous condition. The planters, he said, were investing their money at home, and that fact demonstrated to him that they have no idea of revolution.

ATTEMPTED WHITE CAPPING.

ECKERTY, Ind., Feb. 27.—Reports were received here yesterday from Branchville, in Perry county, corroborating the attempted White Capping of Robert Underhill, a deaf mute. Underhill, as stated, is badly injured, he being shot in the head. He is a deaf mute, and he resides in a little log hut near Branchville. His family consists of a wife and two children and a sister-in-law.

Mr. Underhill reports that one of the children was sick, and he was attending upon its wants about midnight, when five men entered, shouting, "Here he is; take him!" His wife and sister-in-law sprang from bed and attacked the intruders with bed slats, and in this way compelled them to release Underhill. Mr. Underhill then seized an ax, which he used with telling effect.

He claims to have recognized his assailants, and that he used the ax upon Louis Falkenburg and Ed Keefe. Keefe is said to be missing, and there is a rumor that he died from his injuries, and that his remains have been quietly buried. Falkenburg is confined to his bed with a broken shoulder-blade and a shoulder badly cut. He claims that this was done by a horse, sharply shod, that kicked him.

The supposition is that the would-be White Cappers wanted some fun at the expense of Underhill, who is simple-minded. Falkenburg belongs to a first-class family. He is aged twenty-two, and married. Keefe is about twenty years old. He is a waif who was taken from the Catholic orphan asylum at Vincennes, and adopted by a family near Branchville.

Strike at the World's Fair Grounds.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Three hundred staff workers at the world's fair grounds went on a strike yesterday because their employers refused their demand of a general increase in wages of two cents an hour. It is not believed that the strike will cause any delay in the work of decorating the fair grounds.

To the People of Ohio:

It has been brought to the notice of the executive that there is widespread famine in the empire of Russia, the territory embraced by fourteen provinces, and suffers numbering over 20,000,000.

No other country in the world is enjoying such prosperity as the United States, and no state is more blessed than is Ohio; and the cry of humanity should have a most generous response.

As governor of the state, I hereby officially call attention to the great calamity and to the organized efforts inaugurated to relieve the starving Russian peasants, confident that the citizens of this commonwealth will bountifully contribute. I appeal to the various mercantile bodies, and benevolent and charitable associations, and to the people of Ohio generally and in their individual capacity, to put themselves in communication with Russian famine relief committee, 732 Fourteenth street, Washington, D. C., which organization is working in harmony with the American National Red Cross in the collection, confederation and distribution of supplies.

GRAIN BLOCKADE.

Another One is on at Kansas City and Other Western Points.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27.—Another grain blockade is on in Kansas. The Burlington has given notice that it cannot receive any more grain. Orders were issued Wednesday to stop shipping to or via Kansas City on account of the blockade. The grain, principally corn, has been coming into Kansas City at the rate of fifty or sixty cars a day and the road has been able to get rid of only about twenty-five cars.

There were 130 cars in the yard at this point yesterday and, as the working capacity is only one hundred and the cars were still coming in, it resulted in a blockade. The cars are being sidetracked west of here and a large number are being held between this city and St. Joe.

It is impossible to tell how long the blockade will last, but the Burlington people do not expect to get clear for a week at least. So far as known yesterday the other roads are not in any danger of being blockaded, and they claim that they will be able to keep open.

A MODEST CLAIM.

A Denver Lady Says She Owns Half of an Ohio Town.

TIFFIN, O., Feb. 27.—Considerable uneasiness prevails among property owners of the Second ward, owing to a notification received from Mrs. Lucretia Samples, of Des Moines, and addressed to Judge McCauley, president of the city council.

Mrs. Sample claims to have all the original deeds and government patents to this property, now about one-sixth of the territory of the city, and worth over $500,000, and wants to know how and why the city allowed any of it to be conveyed without the knowledge or consent of the rightful heirs. She intimates that the titles have been defective all the time, and that the Armstrong heirs will come forward with a similar claim to other property in a short time.

Looking for a Letter Writer.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Feb. 27.—The postoffice authorities here are engaged in unraveling a mystery. Shortly before New Year's a letter was mailed to a lady in Franklin. It was made up of letters cut from a newspaper, and so arranged as to read: "Will you be convinced? Wish you a happy New Year." It contained a large sum of money in United States greenbacks. The lady to whom it was addressed refused to receive it, and it was sent to the dead-letter office, whence it was forwarded here for investigation. Unless its sender appears the money will be turned into the national treasury.

Judge Botkin Will Not Preside.

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 27.—Judge Theodore Botkin arrived in Topeka yesterday from Arkalon. The judge announced that he had decided not to sit as judge in the cases of the six men held for the murder of Sheriff Dunn. The announcement was entirely unexpected and created a sensation. The judge further announced that either a special judge or a judge pro tem. would have to be selected. Threats have been made by the friends and relatives of the prisoners to the effect that Judge Botkin would never be allowed to hold court in Springfield again.

Destroyed the Evidence.

WAPAKONETA, O., Feb. 27.—In October last Emma and Enos Bennett, of this city, with Amos Basil and John Bennett, of Waynesfield, this county, as sureties, discounted a note for $200 at the People's National bank of this city. It came due Jan. 28, and, as it was not paid or renewed, the bank officials notified the sureties, who called and pronounced the signatures a forgery. The Bennetts hustled around, and secured the payment of the note by giving a new one. As soon as Mrs. Bennett secured possession of it she chewed it up, thus destroying all the evidence against her.

Three Mythical Insurance Companies.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—W. S. O'Brien has been arrested at Emporium, Cameron county, by order of Insurance Commissioner Luper, for collecting premiums for three mythical fire insurance companies, and one company whose capital was misstated. The Alabama Insurance company, of Alabama, and Washington, Union and Crescent companies, of Cleveland, exist simply in name.

CONEAUT, O., Feb. 27.—A rear end collision on the Lake Shore at this station yesterday dismantled an engine and destroyed several freight cars, the wreckage taking fire. No lives were lost.

BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

A Review of the Trade of the Past Week.

R. G. DUN & COMPANY'S REPORT.

Domestic Transactions Not Materially Changed, Though Dullness is Generally Felt—A Decline in Wheat—The Iron and Steel Industry Dull—A Good Supply of Money on the Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: The state of domestic trade has not materially changed, though the continued dullness is perhaps more generally felt. Boston reports a satisfactory volume of business in dry goods, cotton mills employed, a good demand for woolens, and boot and shoe factories busy. Leather is in better demand, and wool fairly active, though at some con-

IN CONGRESS.

The House Disposes of One Contested Election Case—The Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—In the house yesterday a few executive communications were presented and appropriately referred.

Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, made an effort to secure the consideration of bills on the private calendar, but the house preferred to resume the discussion of the Craig-Stewart contested election case, and it was addressed by C. W. Stone, of Pennsylvania, in support of the claims of the sitting member.

After arguments by Moore, of Texas, and Mr. O'Ferrall, of Virginia, for the contestant, and Mr. Dalzel, of Pennsylvania, for the contestee, the previous question was ordered, and on a yeas and nays vote, 150 to 58, the contestant, Hon. Alex Craig, was declared elected to the seat from the Twenty-fourth congressional district of Pennsylvania. Enclosed by Hon. Jason Brown, of Indiana, Mr. Craig was then sworn in by the speaker and took his seat amidst applause on the Democratic side.

Mr. Culberson, of Texas (by request), introduced a bill to facilitate the disposition of causes in the court of claims by the appointment of two additional judges.

Mr. Pallon, of Indiana, introduced two bills, on providing that all pensions hereafter granted under existing regulations to soldiers of the late war of the rebellion, for disease contracted, or wounds received, in this service shall date from the date of discharge of the soldiers, and that all soldiers who are now drawing pensions shall be entitled to the accrued benefits, under this act. The second bill authorized and directed the secretary of war to issue honorable discharges to all soldiers of the late war who served faithfully with their commands until May 1, 1865, and who, previous to this act, were not entitled to the same.

The house then proceeded to consider bills on the private calendar, and the pending bill for the relief of Aquilla Jones, Sr., late postmaster at Indianapolis was passed: Yeas, 118; nays, 65.

Mr. Martin, of Indiana, asked unanimous consent that the house take a recess until 8 o'clock for the consideration of pension bills. After some debate this was agreed to.

When the house reassembled to consider pension matters there were but fifty-one members present. Mr. Kilgore raised the point of order of no quorum and the house at 8:50 p. m. adjourned.

In the senate, Mr. Harrison, of Tennessee, occupied the chair, the vice president and the president pro tem. both being absent. A few local bills were acted on, and the Idaho contested election case was resumed and debated until 4:30, when, after a brief executive session, the senate adjourned.

Deadly Cutting Affray.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27.—A desperate affray occurred here yesterday which resulted in the death of Pat Handley and John Cople. The two men the previous night had a fight with Mike Walsh. Walsh was whipped and agreed to meet Handley yesterday and fight it out. They met on Tchoupitoulas and Erato streets at 10 o'clock. After some words Handley drew a revolver. Walsh pulled a razor and with one blow almost severed Handley's head from his body. Handley fell to the ground a corpse. Cople then interfered and also had his throat cut from ear to ear. He died on the way to the hospital. Walsh was arrested. All parties are steamship firemen.

Another Counterfeit Bill.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 27.—Another counterfeit bill has been discovered and reported to Secret Service Officer Carter by the government authorities at Washington. This time it is a $5 silver certificate, which has been counterfeited. It is of the department series, 1886; W. S. Rosecrans, register, and J. N. Huston, treasurer. The general appearance of the note is good and the lettering and seal are excellent. The right side of the face of the portrait of General Grant has a moth-eaten appearance, and the month is drawn down at the corners. The mustache in the spurious bill is straggling, while in the genuine it is close cut.

Faith Did Not Cure Her.

BRAZIL, Ind., Feb. 27.—The remains of Mrs. John Smurdon, one of the oldest and most popular residents of this county, arrived today at her home in Knightsville from Pittsburgh. Last September she was summoned to Pittsburgh by the illness of her daughter. While there she took treatment for a chronic complaint under the famous Catholic priest faith doctor. One day while leaving the doctor's institute, she fell down stairs, sustaining such injuries as finally resulted in death.

Cashed a Forged Note.

GREENFIELD, Ind., Feb. 27.—A man giving his name as Henry Martin, and claiming to be a farmer residing at Martinsville, cashed a worthless note calling for $500 at the Citizens' bank yesterday, with the names of Floyd Hutchinson and Andrew Jeffries, two wealthy farmers, forged thereto. He represented that he had sold a span of horses and some cattle to these parties. After receiving his money, he made his escape.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1892.

The Legislature should not perpetuate the system of double taxation embraced in the present revenue law.

SCORE one more for the McKinley bill. Another protected rolling mill in Pennsylvania has reduced its employees' wages ten per cent.

THE jobbers and other rascals who are trying to get their hands into New York's treasury find an insurmountable obstacle in Governor Flower. A few well-directed vetoes will settle them.

PROTECTED industries that are reducing wages now will have a chance to increase wages during the heat of the political campaign next fall, and then how they will all shout for McKinley's high tariff.

WHY shouldn't private corporations be taxed in the same manner as partnerships? That's about what they amount to, but some members of the Legislature seem to look upon them in a different light, and are trying to tax them out of existence or out of the State.

We don't like the news from the recent municipal contests in New York. The gains all seem to be on the wrong side to suit us. In Syracuse, the Republican victory was the most signal they have won in that city in a generation. The new Board of Supervisors will stand twenty-six Republicans and seven Democrats, while last year the Democrats had a majority of one. Undoubtedly the secret of the whole trouble is explained by the bitter factional fight between the Hill and Cleveland crowds. "United we stand, divided we fall." The elections demonstrate the importance of selecting the leader in the National contest from some State other than New York, unless harmony is restored there, and that doesn't seem likely.

ONE morning this week as the hand-some new Memphis and Cincinnati packet John K. Speed was approaching the Queen City, Jim Daugherty, one of the mates, became involved in trouble with a couple of deckhands. Enraged by some of his language, they attacked him, and the next instant he was blazing away with his pistol. When the smoke cleared away, it was found that neither of them was hurt, but a passenger was discovered dying from a wound in his heart, one of the bullets having struck him.

This same Daugherty, according to the West Union Defender, is one of the two men who in August, 1873, murdered Morris Edgington, at Manchester. For that crime, he was given a life sentence in the Ohio penitentiary. There's where he ought to be to-day, and where he would be, had it not been for some weak-kneed Governor or Board of Pardons. Daugherty was pardoned after serving only ten years. It's high time a stop was put to this thing of turning red-handed criminals loose upon a community, and of granting favors to other violators of the laws.

TAXATION.

North Carolina's law on revenue and taxation says a "party may deduct from the amount of debts owing to him the amount owing by him, and the residue only shall be liable to taxation."

In Minnesota the law says: "In making up the amount of credits which any person is required to list for himself or for any other person, company or corporation, he shall be entitled to deduct from the gross amount thereof the amount of all bona fide indebtedness of himself or any such person, company or corporation."

The Tennessee law reads that, "the value of all notes, due bills, negotiable paper, or accounts, and judgments on solvent parties believed to be solvent, and all other assets, including cash on hand, or on deposit in solvent banks, or in the hands of solvent parties, belonging to any person, company or corporation, shall be assessed for taxation, from which, however, shall be deducted all bona fide debts incurred in conducting the regular business of such person, firm, etc., and pertaining to the same business out of which arose the note, due bills, etc., from which such debts are to be deducted."

The Code of West Virginia says: "In listing credits or investments, the party owning the same may deduct therefrom what he owes to others as principal debtor, but not what he may be liable for as surety, endorser or guarantor, unless his principal be insolvent."

There are similar provisions in the taxation laws of Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Virginia. All these facts were laid before the Legislature a few days ago by Mr. Dembitz, of Louisville, in an able argument on the subject, and they ought to be carefully considered by the members of the General Assembly in preparing the law on revenue and taxation under the new Constitution. The law on taxation is the one law that reaches everybody in the State. If it should be oppressive, every property-holder will feel its injurious effect, and that at once. For this reason, the aim of the Legislature should be to provide a system that will be equal and uniform, as the new Constitution expressly requires. It should not be unjust and oppressive to any class. The members of the General Assembly should divest themselves of personal and selfish feelings in the matter and look wholly to the interests of the people and the welfare of the State.

HART AND PAYNTER.

More Gossip Concerning the Coming Congressional Contest in this District.

The editor of the Falmouth Guide was up at Cynthiana last court day and says: "Hon. Rolla K. Hart, of Fleming, paid the Maiden City a visit and was hustling considerably to work up an interest in his behalf. Rolla, you know, has the Congressional bee buzzing in his bonnet. The people of Harrison, however, are loyal to Colonel Moore, and Colonel Moore will succeed Hon. Thomas H. Paynter."

The Washington City correspondent of the Louisville Post says: "Representative Thomas H. Paynter is in daily receipt of letters from all parts of his district urging him to become a candidate for re-election. He says many of the letters come from prominent business men who have heretofore taken little or no interest in politics. Mr. Paynter will be a candidate for re-election. He is quite a popular member and is showing his ability as a lawyer on the Committee on Elections."

The Frankfort correspondent of the Louisville Post has the following: "Rolla Hart smiled complacently when he read in the Post's Maysville correspondence Thursday the long list of possible, probable and actual candidates for Congress in the Ninth district, of whom he was prominently mentioned as one. Dr. Frazer, the Representative from Mason, and Senator Poynter are both included in the list, but neither is a candidate so far as present appearances go. The friends of Mr. Hart say Mason County will go for him when the time comes. The genial Representative from Fleming is a pretty subtle politician, and he is just as likely to be the sixth and successful Richmond in the field as any of them."

A Frankfort special to the Covington Post says: "Hon. Rolla K. Hart, of Fleming, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress, to succeed Hon. Thomas H. Paynter. Mr. Hart opened up his campaign by visiting Cynthiana Monday. It was County court day and he mixed with the people. He returned next morning much elated over his prospects for carrying Harrison County, and he will at once leave for Bracken County to look after his interests there. Rolla is a hustler, and will allow no grass to grow under his feet until the entire district is covered, and he will prove a very formidable candidate."

SENATOR POYNTZ SAVES A LIFE.
The Frankfort Capital says: "While going to his room in the Capital Hotel Wednesday night, Senator Poyntz detected the strong odor of gas. Calling the night clerk, an investigation disclosed that the gas was turned full on in a room occupied by Mr. Snugg, a gentleman from Henderson, who was calmly sleeping what would have been his last sleep had not Senator Poyntz happened to be awake at an unusual hour. The gentleman was aroused after some difficulty, and Dr. Hume, who was called, stated that but for the transom having been open, he would have been killed by the gas before its escape was detected."

THE FAMOUS "KIDS."
The management have secured the famous "Pair of Kids" company to give one performance at the Washington Opera House on Friday night, March 4. The company is headed by that well known pantomime eccentric comedian, Ezra Kendall. A good hearty laugh is enjoyed by everyone, and Kendall and the "Kids" have a reputation of six successive years in this line of entertainment.

HERE AND THERE.
Mr. Joseph Martin, a student at the Louisville Medical College, is at home spending a few days with relatives. Says the Owingsville Opinion: "Miss Emma Lee Browning, after spending five months in our midst, will leave for her home in Shannon Saturday. Miss Browning has won many friends here, who sincerely regret her departure."

LIMESTONE STOCK FARM.

We call special attention to the Limestone Stock Farm's advertisement in this issue. It has always lead Northern Kentucky on horse breeding, but still never seems satisfied. In addition to its already strong stud—Alcandre, McAllister and Dr. Owens—it has added the great Barney Wilkes, a tried sire and a proven success under the most adverse circumstances. He has spent most of his life in Georgia, yet he has eleven winners of races, seven with a record from 2:10 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 2:30. He is by the greatest of all sires George Wilkes, and his dam is Rosa. Rosa is the dam of Barney Wilkes, sire of 7 in 2:30; Wilkie Collins, sire of 7 in 2:30; Hull with 4 in 2:30, by Rosco, the best bred son of Pilot, Jr. To show Mr. Fitzgerald's appreciation of Barney Wilkes it is but necessary to say he paid \$3,800 for him, and Barney is seventeen years old.

Alcandre and McAllister are well-known to all horsemen and breeders and we learn their colts are coming fully up to expectations. The farm expects to put two Alcandres in the list this year, and we hear that the young McAllisters are wonderfully fast.

At the Church of the Nativity the services to-morrow will be: Holy communion at 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 10; Morning prayer at 11; evening prayer at 7. Lent begins next Wednesday.

SERVICES IN FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Sunday at usual hours, conducted by the pastor, Rev. John S. Hays, D. D. Westminster League at 6:30 p. m. All cordially invited to these services.

THE SULLIVAN CASE.

Mention was made a few days since that the Court of Appeals had reversed the judgment of the Mason Circuit Court in the case of the Commonwealth against Samuel C. Sullivan, who was convicted last October and given two years in the penitentiary for killing Tom Brashears. The opinion of the upper court was rendered by Judge Bennett, and is as follows:

The appellant was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for the term of two years for killing Tom Brashears. Tom Brashears was the proprietor of a tobacco warehouse in Mason County, Kentucky, and was putting up tobacco therein.

It appears from the evidence that Gus Sullivan—father of the appellant—had housed his crop of tobacco in said warehouse and had prized it there and shipped it to Cincinnati for sale.

Tom Brashears contemplated going to Cincinnati on a certain day to sell his tobacco, and the day before he was to leave he sent word to Gus Sullivan to come to the warehouse and see him about selling his tobacco while in Cincinnati. Accordingly the next morning Gus Sullivan went to see Brashears about selling the tobacco; and the appellant went with him; that the purpose of the appellant in going was to go on further to look at a certain farm that he was contemplating renting; and Gus Sullivan, the father, was going with him to look at the farm. On getting to the warehouse they had a friendly greeting with Brashears, and after remaining awhile, and Brashears not opening up the subject of the sale of the tobacco, and Gus Sullivan, thinking it was his place do so, started away, telling the appellant to come out. But Brashears just then said, what about that tobacco, and Gus Sullivan, understanding his reference, said get 10 cents per pound for it if you can; if you can't get that much, do the best you can with it, &c. Brashears then said, the boys say that you told I had prevented you getting 10 cents for the tobacco, and if you said it you told a d-d lie; Sullivan replied, that he did not say that. Brashears then said, you are a d-d gray-haired, lying n—n of a b—b. Sullivan said, if you are going to talk to me that way come out of your warehouse, and went out, and Brashears followed until he got to a walking cane that the appellant had brought in the warehouse, and which had set up against the post. Brashears when he got the cane, turned upon the appellant and struck him upon the arm with it, then appellant got a large shovel, with which he warded off other blows. Just then Sullivan returned, and Brashears struck him on the left temple with the cane, enting a gash to the bone and about two fingers wide and two and a half inches long, which blow knocked him down and rendered him unconscious for a while. Upon Brashears striking Gus Sullivan and knocking him down, the appellant struck him on the head two blows with the shovel, knocking him down and rendering him senseless, from which he did not recover and died in a few hours. The appellant was about to strike another blow but was prevented by a bystander. The foregoing facts are proven by the appellant and his father, which are very well substantiated by others.

Instruction No. 4 told the jury that if the appellant believed and had reasonable grounds to believe, at the time he struck and killed Brashears, that he (Brashears) was then and there about to kill or inflict great bodily harm upon the appellant's father, Gus Sullivan, and the appellant used such force and means as reasonably appeared to him to be necessary to arrest such real, or to the appellant apparent danger they should acquit, &c. Instruction No. 5 told the jury that if Gus Sullivan not being in real or apparent danger at the hands of said Brashears, made a violent and dangerous assault upon Brashears, then the appellant had no right to strike and kill Brashears in the defense of his father, unless, before such interference on the part of the appellant the father had abandoned the conflict, and Brashears after such abandonment, attacked him in the manner indicated, &c.

The appellant asked the court to insert in the instruction, that if Gus Sullivan ceased the conflict by reason of having been disabled by Brashears, and the appellant believed and had reasonable ground to believe that Brashears after such ceasing was about to attack Gus Sullivan in the manner indicated, &c. The court refused to give the addendum. But it should have been given. The appellant asked the court to give substantially the same instruction as No. 5 in reference to Gus Sullivan having the right to come to the assistance of the appellant.

The appellant was entitled to that instruction leaving off the addendum asked for, because it was important for him to show that Gus Sullivan's coming to the place of conflict going on between him and Brashears was for a lawful purpose, and not for the nefarious purpose of assisting his son in a wrong.

The case is reversed and a new trial is awarded the appellant with instructions to the lower court to proceed therein consistently with this opinion.

Railway News.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, held this week the officers were authorized to issue $70,000,000 worth of bonds for improvements, double trackage, acquiring and constructing branch lines.

President Ingalls when asked what would be done with the $70,000,000 of new bonds said: "Thirty-five millions will be used in taking up the old bonds and nearly all the rest will be spent right here in Virginia. The line from Clifton Forge to Hinton, a distance of forty miles, will be double tracked. A million dollars will be used at Newport News in constructing yards, piers, tracks and a station.

Lynchburg will get an extra slice in the way of extra tracking, a handsome station, etc. We have also just made a contract for forty-six new locomotives, which will be built by the Richmond Locomotive and Machine Works, 1,500 coal cars will also be made by the Ensign Company, at Huntington, W. Va., and twenty-six passenger coaches by Barney & Smith, Dayton, O.

It is rumored that the L. and N. has purchased the Kentucky Midland, and will at an early date begin building it through Bourbon and Bath Counties, and on through the mountains to Pound Gap.

FIRE AT SARDIS.

Pyles' Grist and Flour Mill Destroyed This Morning, Entailing a Loss of About $4,000.

The thrifty little village of Sardis was visited by a destructive fire early this morning.

About 2 o'clock a blaze was discovered in H. M. Pyles' grist and flour mill. The building was a frame and made fine food for the flames.

The fire had a good start before citizens reached the scene, and there was no way of fighting it except by organizing a bucket-brigade. But little could be done under the circumstances, and the building burned to the ground in a short time.

Mr. Pyles places his loss at between $3,500 and $4,000. He had no insurance. The building was comparatively new, having been erected less than a year.

The origin of the fire is not known. The mill was running yesterday, and it is thought that the flames started from a cigar stump cast on the floor by some of the employees or patrons.

The people have an opportunity to buy goods of W. L. Thomas & Brother at lower prices than ever offered before. The stock must go, as they have to give up their store room in a very short time.

Lucas. All invited. The pastor will resume his series of sermons on the history of the church a week from to-morrow night.

MRS. MARGARET J. WALLINGFORD, wife of Mr. Joseph B. Wallingford of the East End, died Thursday night, aged sixty-three years, lacking three days. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of her son-in-law, H. C. Dieterich, Jr., at the Kentucky Nurseries. Services by Rev. C. S. Lucas.

WHEN George Washington Jackson was sent to jail Thursday by Mayor Pearce, to serve out a sentence of thirty days and a fine of $10, he refused to do any work, and the Mayor has had him placed on a diet of bread and water. He tried to play sick on Jailer Kirk that night. That's an old "racket" Jackson resorts to whenever locked up, and the Mayor has given instructions to turn the hose on him the next time he pretends to have a fit.

Great Steamboat Disaster in the North Sea.

OVER FIFTY PEOPLE DROWNED.

Collision of Two British Vessels off the Coast of Yorkshire, England—No Further Rioting in Berlin—Other News of Foreign Origin.

London, Feb. 27.—A fearful disaster, involving the loss of about fifty-five lives, occurred in the North sea off the coast of Yorkshire, England. Full details have not yet been received. It appears from brief dispatches that the two British steamships, the Forest Queen and the Loughbrow, came into collision near the promontory known as Flamborough Head, which rises, with the lighthouse that crowns it, to a height of 214 feet above the North sea.

The collision appears to have come without the slightest warning. The two vessels crashed together, the bow of the Loughbrow cutting the Forest Queen in two. In an instant, almost without a cry, the Forest Queen sank, and every soul on board, passengers and crew, to the number of fifty-five, with one exception, were drowned. The captain of the Forest Queen, being on deck at the time of the disaster, appears to have been pulled on board the Loughbrow. The latter vessel was considerably injured, but not enough to sink. The greatest excitement reigned at Flamborough when the news became known, and boats pushed out to the scene to see what could be done in saving life. The wreck of the Forest Queen had, however, utterly disappeared. Further news is awaited with great anxiety. The vessels seem to have been coastwise steamers.

THE BERLIN RIOTS.

Quiet Restored and No Further Outbreak Likely to Occur.

BERLIN, Feb. 27.—The police yesterday dispersed every gathering of even a few citizens on the streets, and did not hesitate to use their swords or to shower kicks upon the people. A military cordon prevents any one approaching nearer than three hundred yards to the emperor's castle. Outside this cordon crowds of people were to be seen gathered in adjoining streets, but few people dared to approach very near the line of soldiers and policemen.

During the day, it is said, a number of arrests were made by the secret police and it is rumored that others are to follow.

There is now quiet throughout the city. Nearly all the police force is on duty, or on reserve at a moment's call, only those who were injured or exhausted in Thursday's struggle being excused. Until almost midnight crowds wandered about the streets, visiting from curiosity the various localities where the encounter between police and mob has been hottest. The police did not interfere with people unless they seemed bent on mischief, or were heard expressing sympathy with the outbreak. In such cases the offenders were either arrested or ordered instantly home. The total number of arrests made during the two days is 200, and sixty persons are known to have been wounded.

Russia's Display at Our Fair.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 27.—United States Minister Smith and Consul General Crawford, have had an interview with the president of the Russian commission on the Chicago fair. The president stated that Russia would transport the exhibits to Chicago and back free of cost to the exhibitors, the only expense to the latter being for sending the articles to St. Petersburg. The Russian imperial porcelain factory is making special designs for the fair.

Gladstone in Paris.

PARIS, Feb. 27.—The Right Hon. William E. Gladstone has arrived in this city, and will remain here, at the Hotel Bristol, for a few days previous to resuming his journey back to England. Mr. Gladstone appears to be healthy and hearty and in every way enjoying good health.

Woman Burned by Lynchers.

VIENNA, Feb. 27.—In the town of Menin, Austria, a handsome young widow named Leppers, who was supposed to have murdered her husband, has been burned to death by lynchers, who poured kerosene oil over her and set her on fire.

Will Be Gallotined.

PARIS, Feb. 27.—Lieutenant Anastay has been found guilty of the murder of Madame Berland and sentenced to death.

THEY PULLED GUNS.

WALTON, Ky., Feb. 27.—There was an exciting time at the Southern railroad station here Thursday night. Mrs. Clara King, of 31 Freeman avenue, Cincinnati came here and abducted thirteen-year-old Jennie Barton. She had her at the depot and was waiting for a train to bring the child to Cincinnati, when Dave Healey appeared and took the child.

Mrs. King pulled a revolver, so did Healey, and for a while bloodshed was threatened. Healey, however, retained possession of the child and Mrs. King went to Cincinnati alone. The child is one of the three children of George Barton, whose widow married William Bucklage, of Newport. The children did not have suitable homes and were given to the care of Healey, who is also a relative. Mrs. King is also related to the child and is anxious to secure possession of her.

Tuners Assign.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 27.—A. Stiegler & Company, of Camp Washington, assigned Friday. The firm was in the tannery business, and was composed of Anthony and Barbara Stiegler. The assets of the firm are $75,000, and the liabilities considerably in excess of this. Otto Pfleger and Jacob Hurlacher are made the assignees.

TRAIN ROBBER INTERVIEWED. He Tells How He Shot the Central Hudson Messenger.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 27.—A Post-Express reporter had a long interview with Oliver Curtis Perry, the train robber, in jail at Lyons. The prisoner said:

"On the evening of the robbery I went to the theater at Syracuse. About midnight I went down to the depot and hung around until 31 came in. I watched them and saw there was a safe in each end. I knew the safes in one end contained money, and was sure there was some money in the other.

"I went up in the freight yard and as the express pulled out I jumped on the car ahead of the messengers. I crawled over the first car to McInerney's car. I took out my rope ladder, a kind of fire escape invention of my own. I strapped the big frontier revolver, which I always carried through the west, with my cartridge belt around my overcoat. The other revolvers I put in my upper overcoat pocket within easy reach in case I dropped the big one. I got up on the platform railing, and putting my hands on the roofs of the two cars swung up to the top.

"I attached the hook on the roof of the car and pecked down over the edge to see if the messenger had taken any alarm. He was all right, and I swung down in my rope saddle over the edge. Both hands were free and I tried to hold onto the edge of the car roof, but the train was going fifty miles an hour, and the wind was so strong I was blown away from the car several times, and once I narrowly missed striking a bridge. My hands became so cold that when I drew my big revolver I found I could not cock the piece. I rubbed my hands and slapped my sides with them until they grew warm.

"When I got inside the car I leveled my gun at McInerney and, as I did so, he raised his revolver and held it leveled at me with both hands at arms' length. He ducked his head and the ball grazed his forehead. He dropped his revolver and reached for the bellcord. When he had pulled the cord twice and, while attempting to pull it a third time, I fired and shot him in the arm. He stepped over to where his gun lay on the floor and, as he reached for it, paying no attention to my command to throw up his hands, I fired again, the ball striking him somewhere in the leg."

Mine Fire Put Out.

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 27.—The fire which has been ranging for the last four days in the Chandler mine at Ely, on the Vermillion range, has been extinguished. The total loss is $35,000. One man lost his life while fighting the flames. The two lower levels of the mine are filled with water and it will take two weeks to get into shape for raising ore.

THE MARKETS.

Pork Packing and Provisions.

[Cincinnati Price Current, February 25.]

The total marketing of hogs in the West the past week has been quite moderate and packing operations furthered by the returns showing 225,000 head, $30,000 the preceding week, and $35,000 for corresponding time last year, marking a total of 7,670,000 since November 1, against 7,230 last year; decrease 250,000 hogs. It is quite likely the ultimate exhibit for the winter season, ending March 1, will show a further reduction in numbers in the comparison. The demand for hogs for shipment continues to absorb a liberal proportion of the meat supplies, and the operators of meat establishments now killing are largely due to a trade for fresh product, without which the premium being paid for hogs compared with values of cured product would not be justified.

At the close prices of hogs are slightly easier than a week ago, the average sales at Chicago being about $1.50 per 100 lbs., and leading articles of produce in about $1.25 for hogs. In the previous trade in meat supplies, now shown. Current distribution of product is liberal and prices without essential change. The week's exports of product were large, although not up to the high point in lard shown for corresponding time last year. The general situation seems to be free from influences calculated to cause any special depression in values, while the lack of speculative interest for forward deliveries give little encouragement with reference to any substantial advance in the near future.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

(Thursday.)

The breaks continue very heavy and two houses were shut out—the Walker and Morris. The market remains firm and active, without change from the two previous days. Old good and fine leaf, which is in light supply, was in active demand at full figures. Medium and red tobacco do not show any change, the demand being only moderate. Curious and unusual tobacco scripts show the same active demand, and are taken at full prices. There was a firm market, with an active demand for all grades of new, at prices that are accepted by holders.

Of the 485 hogs (new) 11 sold from $1.75 to $3.05, from $4 to $3.95, 185 from $6 to $7.95, 56 from $8 to $9.95, 78 from $10 to $14.75, 50 from $15 to $19.75, and 4 from $20.50 to $22.50.

Of the 485 hogs (old) 11 sold from $1 to $3.95, 89 from $4 to $5.95, 136 from $6 to $7.95, 54 from $8 to $9.75, 55 from $10 to $14.75, 24 from $15 to $19.75, 9 from $20 to $24.75 and 3 from $25 to $28.
